CHAPTER II

PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTIVES OF VOLUNTARY AND HUMANITARIAN WORK

6. Principles governing voluntary and humanitarian work

Non-governmental Organisations shall, in carrying out voluntary or humanitarian work, observe the following principles:

(a) Non-discrimination of the nationals on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity, political affiliation or religious belief;

(b) Fairness in selection of geographical areas for allocation of projects, taking into consideration areas with greater need of support;

(c) Accountability to beneficiaries, donors and relevant public institutions responsible for delivery of services in the areas, and other entities to be specified in the regulations;
(d) Sustainability of the programmes by creating conditions that enable the local communities to be self-reliant in the management of programmes;

(e) Participation by local communities and beneficiaries;

(f) Capacity building for South Sudanese nationals involved in the work of Organisations;

(g) Respect for the sovereignty of the Republic of South Sudan, its institutions and laws.

7. Objectives of Non-Governmental Organisations

The objectives of Non-Governmental Organisations involved in voluntary or humanitarian projects shall include:

(a) Deliver emergency relief to the communities affected by any natural or man-made disaster;

(b) Prevent, mitigate and manage risks to people or the environment resulting from any such disaster;

(c) Co-ordinate relief with reconstruction, rehabilitation, resettlement and development projects;

(d) Co-ordinate with relevant public institutions in formulating, implementing relief, reconstruction, rehabilitation and resettlement programmes;

(e) Rehabilitate economic and social infrastructure affected by disaster;

(f) Consult with beneficiaries and any relevant government institutions at all levels in determining the needs and priorities of the communities affected;

(g) Build capacities of both the communities and government institutions at all levels;

(h) Mainstream gender, peace, HIV/AIDS and disaster risk reduction in all programmes.
CHAPTER 13
REGISTRATION OF NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANISATIONS

8. Establishment and Maintenance of Database

The Registrar shall establish and maintain a database of non-governmental Organisations and their activities in South Sudan containing necessary information for understanding and promoting contribution of Non-Governmental Organisations to the national development.

9. Requirements for Registration

(i) Requirements for registration of all Non-Governmental Organisations shall be as follows:
   (a) Submission of an application for registration to the Registrar in the prescribed form;
   (b) The application for registration shall be made by the director or representative of the proposed Organization and shall specify:

Any person who makes signs or utters false statement or declaration in violation of any provision of this Act shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand South Sudanese Pounds or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or both.

16. Exemption from Duties and Taxes

The Minister responsible for finance may, on the recommendation of the Minister in writing, exempt any registered Non-Governmental Organization from payment of customs duties and taxes on specified assets and equipment imported or purchased for the purpose of the voluntary or humanitarian work of the Organization.

17. Alteration and Termination of activities of an Organization

Any Non-Governmental Organization registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall obtain prior written approval of the Registrar to engage in activities other than those agreed upon with the Government as set out in its programmes plan.
18. Employment by Non-governmental Organisations

(1) Subject to this section, and the labour law, a Non-Governmental Organization shall employ South Sudanese nationals or International personnel as its employees.

(2) Any Non-Governmental Organization so employing shall:

(a) Give priority to South Sudanese nationals;

(b) Not discriminate against any applicant or employee on the ground of region, race, religion, gender or political affiliation.

(c) Ensure that not less than 80 percent of the employees are South Sudanese nationals in all managerial, middle and junior levels.

(d) Engage professional staff from abroad only if there are no qualified South Sudanese nationals.

(e) Ensure that all expatriates have work permits and any other documents required by law prior to arrival.

(f) Abide by legal requirements in respect of safety at the workplace and any minimum wages requirement set by the Government from time to time.

(g) Deduct personal income tax from basic salaries of South Sudanese and other consultants and transfer it to the Government.

19. Ceasing of Operations by Non-Governmental Organization

A Non-Governmental Organization may cease its operations provided that it shall give a three month notice prior to ceasing the operations.
3. Regulations

(1) The Minister shall, upon the recommendation of the Chairperson, make regulations for the implementation of this Act.

(2) The regulations shall include, among others:

(a) Registration and renewal fees;

(b) Renewal of a registration certificate;

(c) Registration of Non-Governmental Organisations in the country and community based Organization in the states and counties;
